III. QUESTIONS

1. Click on the Accts. toolbar button. When the Account Maintenance window appears, click on the Accounts tab, key the account number and account title of the account to be added, then choose the Add Account button.
2. Click on the Accts. toolbar button. When the Account Maintenance window appears, click on the Accounts tab and select the account to be changed. Key the new account title, then choose the Change button to record the new account title.
3. Click on the Accts. toolbar button. When the Account Maintenance window appears, click on the Accounts tab and select the account to be deleted. Choose the Delete button to delete the selected account (only accounts with zero balances may be deleted).
4. Any business transaction may be entered in the general journal window.

5. Click on the Journals toolbar button. When the Journal Entries window appears, click on the General Journal tab and select the transaction that must be corrected. Key the correction(s), then choose the Post button.
6. Click on the Journals toolbar button. When the Journal Entries window appears, click on the General Journal tab, select the transaction to be deleted, then chose the Delete button.
7. While the Account field has the focus, choose the Chart of Accounts button to cause the computer to display a selection list from which an account may be selected and placed in the Account field.
8. Start Date: 07/01/--
End Date: 07/31/--
9. Start Date: 09/01/--
End Date: 09/10/--

11. Income Statement, Balance Sheet, and Statement of Owner's Equity.
12. In the Reconciliation window, the computer automatically includes the Cash account balance in the Checkbook Balance field, and all the checks written during the period are displayed in a list box.
13. The computer automatically generates the closing entries that close the temporary income statement accounts to the income summary account, close the income summary account to the capital account, and close the drawing account to the capital account.
14. If an error is detected after closing, use the following procedure:
(1) correct the journal entry in error, (2) delete the closing entries, and (3) again generate, display, and post the closing journal entries.
