SCENARIO QUESTIONS

Use the following to answer questions 28–32:

Excellent Air Incorporated (EAI)

Excellent Air Inc. is a well-known establishment in the airline business. It is currently one of the top firms in the industry. The company prides itself on good customer service and being concerned with the broader societal good. EAI management is not only concerned with doing things right, but also with doing the right things. Many of their decisions reflect this philosophy. Initially, the company had a problem with employees reporting their suspicions about unethical behavior to the press instead of to EAI management. As a result, the company made sure its employees knew the firm's guidelines on fixing ethical issues. EAI also developed a code of conduct based on standards that continue to be upheld within the company. Since the code of conduct has been put in place, there have been much fewer ethical violations.

Although employee salaries at EAI are not as high as those at competing firms, the company experiences very low employee turnover. The firm has created a corporate culture that not only makes its employees want to stay, but that also results in higher profits. If EAI can maintain the relationship it has built with its employees and customers, it will have little difficulty keeping up its remarkable success.

Use the following to answer questions 33–37:

XYZ Coffee

Nancy is a highly respected person within her community. She is Hispanic in a largely Caucasian-populated area. Since Nancy was looking for a new job, she went to a new company in the area called XYZ Coffee, where she applied for a position. After the interview, Nancy felt confident that she would be hired because of her qualifications. However, she did not get a call back. Initially, Nancy did not think twice about it, but she felt differently when she visited the same coffee store later to purchase something for a friend. The company had hired an inexperienced Caucasian male with a history of unemployment. At this point, Nancy was quite aggravated, but she left the issue alone.

She ended up asking an associate for an espresso machine. The employee informed Nancy where the machine was located and retrieved it for her. Nancy asked if there were any other espresso machines of higher quality. When the associate said no, Nancy purchased the item and left. After she gave the gift to her friend, she noticed a much better quality espresso machine that someone else had given her. Nancy asked where they had purchased it, and they responded, "XYZ Coffee."

He is upset because his friend Jerry was offered an interest rate 3 percent less than what Tony was offered by the same mortgage company. This mortgage company's actions were
- unethical—both Tony and Jerry should have been charged the same interest rates, regardless of their credit histories.
 - ethical—this is just a part of doing business because credit history is an important indicator of future payments.
 - illegal—subjective factors may not be used when determining which credit offers may be extended to certain customers.
 - unethical if Tony is a minority and Jerry is not.
 - unethical and illegal—customers must all be treated the same.
45. Metabo-Miracle offers a guaranteed weight loss of 10 pounds in one week without dieting or exercise. Thousands of customers purchase the products and about 200 call in with complaints that the product was ineffective. What action should Metabo-Miracle take?
- It should immediately remove its products from the market, fully refund the thousands of customers' money, and close its business.
 - It should use persuasive techniques to get the 200 disappointed customers to try the product again each time it fails in order to decrease refunds.
 - It should explain to the customers that they misused the product and try to sell them more of the product.
 - It should discuss the product failure with the customers and then provide them with a full refund of their purchase price.
 - It should ignore the customers' complaints and hope they will tire of calling and writing letters.
