The Yankel Corporation's controller prepares adjusting entries only at the end of the fiscal year. The following adjusting entries were prepared on December 31, 2016:

	Debit	Credit
Interest expense	1,800
Interest payable		1,800
Insurance expense	60,000
Prepaid insurance		60,000
Interest receivable	3,000
Interest revenue		3,000

Additional information:

- 1. The company borrowed $30,000 on June 30, 2016. Principal and interest are due on June 30, 2017. This note is the company's only interest-bearing debt.
- 2. Insurance for the year on the company's office buildings is $90,000. The insurance is paid in advance.
- 3. On August 31, 2016, Yankel lent money to a customer. The customer signed a note with principal and interest at 9% due in one year.

Required:

Determine the following:

- 1. What is the interest rate on the company's note payable?
- 2. The 2016 insurance payment was made at the beginning of which month?
- 3. How much did Yankel lend its customer on August 31?

1. $1,800 represents six months of interest on a $30,000 note, or 50% of annual interest.

 $1,800 \div .50 = 3,600$ in annual interest

 $$3,600 \div $30,000 = 12\%$ interest rate

Or,

 $Principal \times Rate \times Time = Interest$

 $$30,000 \times \text{Rate} \times 6/12 = $1,800$

 $1,800 \div 30,000 = .06$ six-month rate

To annualize the nine month rate: $.06 \times 12/6 = .12$ or 12%

2. $$90,000 \div 12 \text{ months} = $7,500 \text{ per month in insurance}$

 $$60,000 \div $7,500 = 8 \text{ months expired}$. The insurance was paid on May 1, eight months ago.

3. Principal \times Rate \times Time = Interest

Principal \times 9% \times (4/12) = $3,000

Principal $\times 3\% = $3,000$

Principal = $100,000

Or

$3,000 represents four months (September through December) in accrued interest, or $750 per

 $750 \times 12 \text{ months} = 9,000 \text{ in annual interest}$

Principal \times 9% = $9,000

Principal = $$9,000 \div .09 = $100,000 \text{ note}$

141. What is the difference between permanent accounts and temporary accounts, and why does an accounting system have both types of accounts?

Permanent accounts represent assets, liabilities, and shareholders' equity at a point in time. Temporary accounts represent changes in retained earnings caused by dividend, revenue, expense, and gain and loss accounts. The temporary accounts are closed out annually to facilitate measuring income on an annual basis. Temporary accounts are a convenience to aid the preparation of financial statements by recording revenues and expenses in these accounts rather than directly into retained earnings.

143. What is the purpose of the closing process?

The closing process serves a dual purpose: (1) the temporary accounts are reduced to a zero balance, ready to measure activity in the next accounting period, and (2) the balances of these temporary accounts are transferred to retained earnings to reflect the changes that have occurred in that account during the period. Revenue and expense accounts are first transferred to income summary. The net balance in income summary is then transferred to retained earnings.
