

TEST BANK

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. A nurse who has been in the medical field for some time is interested in achieving licensure as a medical doctor. What is the initial requirement to acquire this licensure?
  - A) A minimum of 4 years of undergraduate study
  - B) An in-depth knowledge of the biomedical field
  - C) One year of work experience in a hospital setting
  - D) An analytical mindset and caring attitude

2. A registered nurse has recently specialized in the field of surgery. As a registered nurse (RN) in the surgical department, what is the advanced practice role the RN could pursue?
  - A) First assistant in surgery
  - B) Administering intravenous (IV) medications
  - C) Administering prescribed medications
  - D) Prescribing postoperative care

3. A nurse has received a clinical specialist certificate. What specialization is the nurse likely to have achieved in order to acquire the certificate?
  - A) Adult nursing
  - B) Family practice
  - C) Pediatrics
  - D) Medical-surgical

4. The activities of a nurse include preparing a document based on the client's responses, preparing plans with input from other healthcare staff members, recording medication and treatments, and verbalizing events with other healthcare team members. In this case, which role is the nurse performing?
  - A) Care provider
  - B) Advocate
  - C) Communicator
  - D) Teacher

5. A person who is neither a licensed practical nurse (LPN) nor a nursing student has enrolled for membership in the National Federation of Licensed Practical Nurses (NFLPN). What is the main purpose of NFLPN that the person should be aware of?
  - A) It legally represents the client's interests.
  - B) It provides an international accreditation process.
  - C) It establishes standards of accreditation for nursing education.
  - D) It interprets the role and function of the LPN/LVN.

6. A student of nursing wishes to join the American Nurses Association (ANA). He or she needs information on the eligibility for the membership of the ANA. Which should he or she be informed about?
- A) The person should be a registered nurse (RN).
  - B) The association allows licensed practical nurses (LPNs) with work experience of 2 years.
  - C) The association allows student affiliates.
  - D) The association allows students with a scholarship.

Answer Key

1. A
2. A
3. D
4. C
5. D
6. A